The musical score consists of ten staves. The first four staves are woodwind and brass parts: Double Bass (E. Bass), Flute (Fl.), Harp, and three groups of Violins (Vlns.). The last six staves are string parts: three groups of Violins (Vlns.), Bassoon (Vlas.), and Cello/Bassoon (Vlcs.). Measure 35 contains various note heads and rests. Measure 36 begins with a forte dynamic (f) for the Flute, followed by a sustained note and a sixteenth-note pattern for the Harp. The strings play eighth-note patterns, and the bassoon (Vlas.) has a sustained note. Dynamics include f, p, and p.
